

Majors elected president of bankers group

Gordon Majors, president and CEO of the Hardin County Bank in Savannah, is the newly elected president of the Independent Bankers Division of the Tennessee Bankers Association (TBA).

Gordon Majors

Majors was elected during the group's annual convention held October 28-29 in Nashville. Approximately 180 attended the convention, which attracts community bankers from across Tennessee.

The Independent Bankers Division of the Tennessee Bankers Association was organized in 1973 to represent the interests of Tennessee's community banks in areas such as education and legislation.

"I am very honored to serve in this capacity and I look forward to working with community bankers across the entire state," Majors stated.

Other significant boards that Majors has served on in his banking career are trustee of the Southwest School of Commercial Lending, and most recently, board member of Financial PSI, which is the insurance division of the Tennessee Bankers Association.

Majors has been employed with The Hardin County Bank since 1977 and served as President and CEO since 2002. He received his Bachelors of Science in Accounting from the University of Tennessee at Martin.

The Tennessee Bankers Association, founded in 1890 and headquartered in Nashville, is a not-for-profit organization representing the state's more than 235 banks and thrift institutions and their 33,000 employees. The Association provides continuing education, develops and monitors state and federal legislative agendas, disseminates information on all facets of the financial industry, and promotes the public image of financial institutions. On the web: www.TNBankers.org.

Dulcimer players to play holiday music, give lessons

The North Mississippi Dulcimer Association returns to the Wayne County Welcome Center Saturday, Nov. 28.

Guests are invited to join the players in a Christmas sing-a-long featuring classic carols like Jingle Bells, Away in a Manger and We Wish You a Merry Christmas. Play times are from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. with free lessons given after the performance.

The association will start off the Thanksgiving weekend with performances at the Wayne County Assisted Living and Wayne County Nursing Home facilities on the day after Thanksgiving. Christmas carols will make up the entire playlist on Friday afternoon.

The North Mississippi Dulcimer Association teaches dulcimer history, tradition, craftsmanship, and music by sharing its knowledge and talents. Dating back to the early 1800s, the dulcimer is an instrument whose very name means "sweet sound."

The chamber of commerce invites everyone to come out and enjoy hours of sweet holiday sounds at the Welcome Center located just off the Natchez Trace Parkway at mile marker 355 in Collinwood. Admission is free.
