PUBLIC NOTICE

Discussion and action on extension of the Hardin County School Board's contract with the Director of Schools will be on the agenda for the Monday, May 13, meeting.

On the Record

week of April 18

Savannah Police Dept.

The following items are derived directly from official Savannah Police Department reports and spokesmen.

April 8
Gregory White, 52, 201 Harwood St., was stopped on Wayne Road and arrested on a DUI charge. The report says a complaint was received about a possible intoxicated motorist, and White was pulled over after an officer observed him driving erratically.
Nov. 9

Kenneth L. Settlemires, 67, Walnut, Mississippi, was arrested on Main Street after being involved in a minor motor vehicle collision on charges of resisting arrest and failure to provide proof of vehicle insurance. According to the report, Settlemires refused to show an officer his driver's license and refused to sign the insurance law ticket.

Joyce Graham, 81, Blanton Road, Adamsville, was driving east on Malcomb Street and struck another vehicle upon pulling onto Florence Road. The other driver, Mary Couch, 60, Hernando, Mississippi, was southbound on Florence and was stopped in traffic, waiting for a vehicle to turn when Graham's vehicle struck hers in the side.

Gary Sanford, 69, Linda Drive, said he was driving on Bain Road near the intersection of Stout Street when an unknown vehicle ran him off the road and into a ditch. Sanford said he got his truck out of the ditch and drove home, and told police he hit the windshield and his hand was also swollen.

April 10
Etta Stricklin, Bellwood Street, said some medication had been stolen from her residence.

April 11
An arrest was made for trespassing.

Neal J. Conde II, 54, 290 East Main St., was arrested on a charge of domestic assault. His wife, Heidi Conde, said he came home drunk and when she didn't want to let him into the residence, he broke glass out of a door, entered and threw some items. Conde said he did not hit his wife.

James Stubblefield, 33, 160 Suzanne Lane, was stopped on Harrison Street and arrested on charges of DUI and two active warrants out of Hardin County. Stubblefield was also charged with failure to provide proof of vehicle insurance and his vehicle seized. A passenger, Barry L. Parsons, Jr., 33, 930 Poplar St., was arrested on charges of possession of meth with intent and possession of drug paraphernalia (syringes). According to the report, Stubblefield's vehicle was stopped because it matched a description of a vehicle being sought by investigators.

Janis Droke, 230 Ryan St., G-2, said a $75 space heater had been stolen from her apartment. Nicole Martin, Sardis, Tennessee, said a bank card was stolen out of her vehicle parked at Walmart.

Kristan Shelby, New Hope Drive, said Tennessee license tag 5F7-0D3 was stolen off her vehicle, possibly while it was parked at Walmart.

April 12
An arrest was made for public intoxication.

Robert Jones, 230 Young Lane, said someone attempted to enter his tractor-trailer truck by breaking glass on the driver side rear sleeping area. Nothing was reported missing.

Tenisha D. Higgins, 240 Deberry St., said someone vandalized her property by throwing toilet paper in the yard and putting glitter on the porch.

Kenneth Johnson, Cromwell Street, said three fire arms, two air compressors, a pressure washer and two knives were stolen from a building at 60 Settlers St. He said the items were last seen on April 9.

Chad S. Fielder, 44, Florence, Alabama, was stopped on Pickwick Street and arrested on charges of DUI-3 and violation of the implied consent law. The arresting officer said he observed Fielder driving at a high rate of speed and hit the sidewalk on the right side of the road.

April 13
Tyson Jones, 45, 60 Joy Ann Circle, was arrested near his residence on charges of DUI 3, resisting stop, halt, frisk, arrest and violation of the implied consent law. Police were dispatched to the location regarding a domestic altercation and found Jones' vehicle in a ditch.
Lisa Austin said glass at a rear door of her father's residence at 85 Bain Road was broken in a vandalism incident.

Steve Logan said he was checking on the 1834 Florence Road residence of Heather Webb and found a door had been opened. The door was damaged and it was not confirmed at the time of the report that anything was missing.

April 14
Grady W. Talley, 375 Peaceful Lane, Olive Hill, was cited on a charge of simple possession of marijuana. Police were dispatched to Dodge's Store on Wayne Road after an off-duty officer reported a strong odor of marijuana coming from a white Pontiac Grand-Am there.

Tammy Chrestman, Twelve Oaks Drive, Adamsville, said Tennessee license tag 182-CSD was stolen off her vehicle, possibly while it was parked at Walmart.
