I hope everyone had a good week. Winter is going to be like summer, I don't know if it is going to be wet or dry.

Thanks to the Courier for a great luncheon with good food and friends, really good to see all of the other writers.

We are in need of someone to write Shiloh news since CD Rickman is gone. If you know anyone that might be interested call the Courier office.

Congratulations to BJ and Christina Copeland on the birth of their baby boy. Gradparents are Jody and Pam Copeland of Savannah and Kathy Newcomb.

Get well wishes to Pat Terry, who has been sick for a while. His doctor wants to put him in the hospital. Like most men, he is stubborn.

Our sympathies to the Mike Ellis family, I am praying for the family.

I had a wonderful time Saturday at the Willcutt gathering. If we don't get more help for cleanup, there will not be one next year.
